1 - HISTORICAL CITY

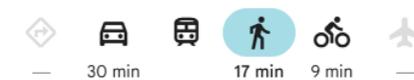

TOUR FROM THE CATHEDRAL TO RIBEIRA

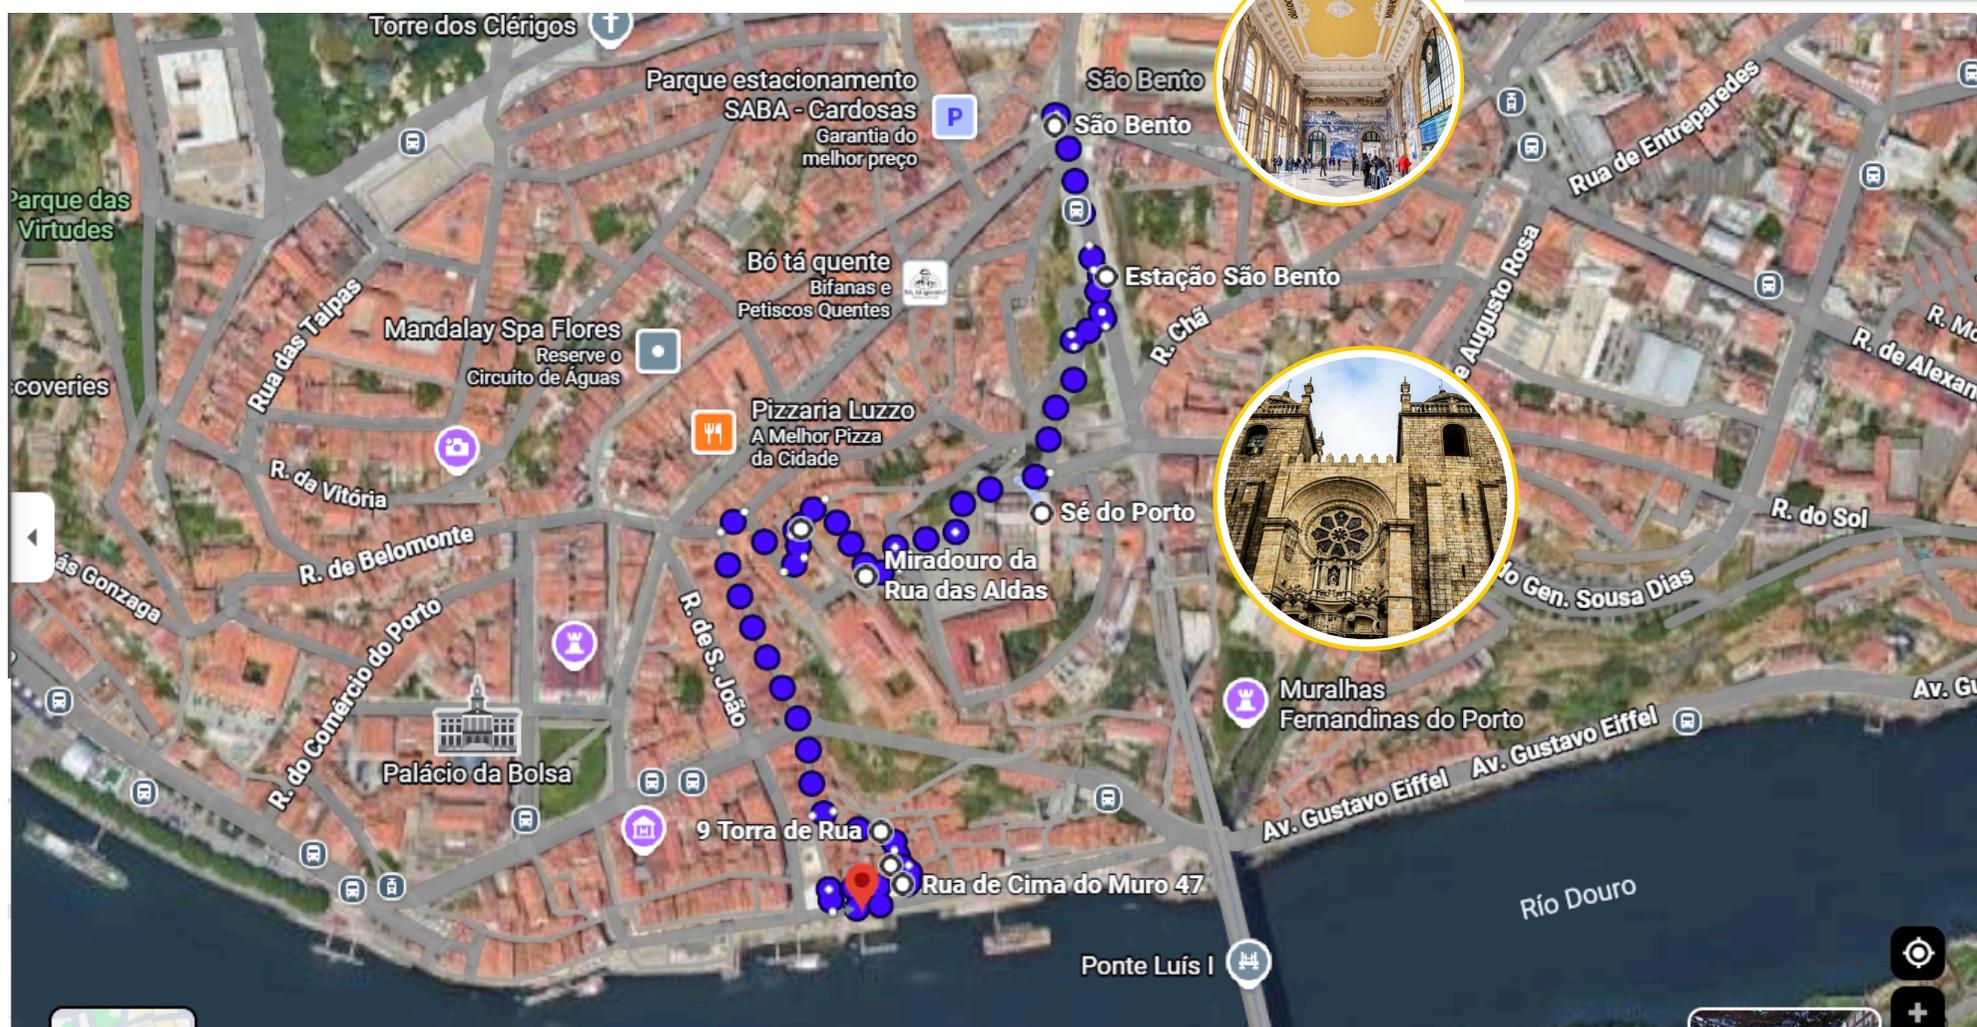

On this itinerary you will pass by the oldest houses in Porto. It ends in Ribeira and will pass through the city's most cosy square: Largo pena Ventosa

Exit the Metro at São Bento station and visit one of the most beautiful and most photographed train stations in the world: São Bento Train Station.

Next, head towards Porto Cathedral (Sé do Porto). Visit the Cathedral and stop at the viewpoint Miradouro da Rua das Aldas. There's a tourist information office there, if you need one.

Next stop:

Largo da Pena Ventosa

Due to its defensive advantages, it became the settlement point for the "tripeiros" (inhabitants of Porto) since the Bronze Age.

TOUR FROM THE CATHEDRAL TO RIBEIRA

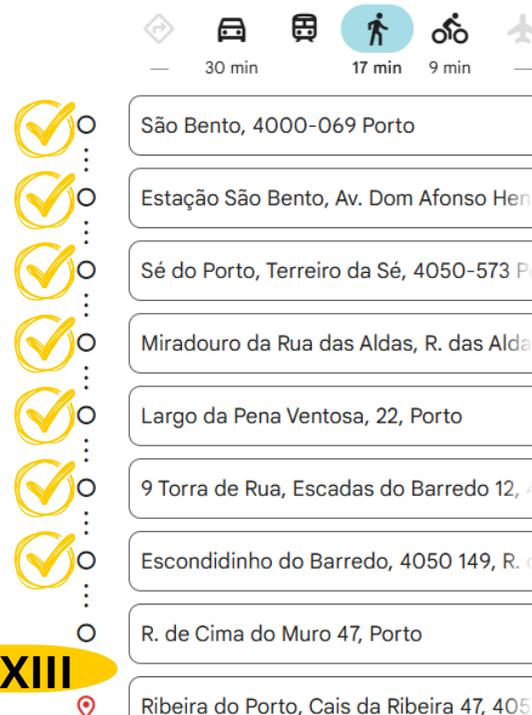

Torre da Rua de Baixo is a 13th-century house, one of the first in the city of Porto.

It is located in the Barredo area, one of the oldest areas of Porto and where many locals still live.

The Porto City Council has been trying to keep tourism in Porto balanced, ensuring that the locals remain in the city, giving it a unique charisma that only Porto possesses.

Escondidinho do Barredo is a restaurant without a name on the door, known throughout the area for its traditional, historic atmosphere and homemade food.

TOUR FROM THE CATHEDRAL TO RIBEIRA

You've arrived at Praça da Ribeira, now enjoy the lively atmosphere, the view and a glass of Port wine on a terrace.

You can return to your starting point (São Bento) via the Guindais Funicular (next to Luís I Bridge); the climb uphill can be challenging. :)

The best view of Porto is from Gaia side, this is how the locals joke when they suggest crossing the Luís I Bridge and heading to the other side and take a better picture of Ribeira.

You can also take a short cruise on the Douro River or you can visit the famous Port Wine Cellars.

If you like heights, you can take a ride on the cable car.

You can end the day with a beer or a glass of wine in the Jardim do Morro.

TOUR FROM THE CATHEDRAL TO RIBEIRA

In Gaia, you can walk to Jardim do Morro, the best place to watch the sunset in Douro River.

To return, take the metro, or cross Luís I Bridge, on the upper deck, until you reach start point (São Bento).
